

Loper Presents Fashion Fiesta

For Alpha Chi Omega's Benefit

Southland Alpha Chi Omega, NPC, alumnae will make "Magic in Motion" the theme of their twelfth annual benefit on Oct. 16 for the Alpha Chi Omega Scholarship Fund. The Crippled Children's Society, national philanthropy for the Alpha Chis, administers the fund through the CCS of Los Angeles County. The fund provides graduate work in the fields of occupational, physical and speech therapy. To date, the annual benefits have netted more than $70,000 from which scholarships have been maintained at UCLA, USC, Long Beach State and California State College at Los Angeles.

Don Loper, veteran of California couture, will present the delightful blend of fashion and showmanship that is his hallmark. His elegant array of clothing will be served with a modicum of chilled champagne, a magnum of humorous commentary, and the mellow music of Sydney Zaid.

The Southern California Executive Board of Alpha Chi Omega will present the luncheon in the Los Angeles Room of the Century Plaza Hotel.

Completing plans for the event are the co-chairmen, Mmes. Samuel J. Smock of Downey and Conrad R. Solum Jr., of Pacific Palisades. Assisting them are Mmes. Melvin A. Wolf, Jr., of Burbank, Robert H. Stewart of Arcadia, Richard W. Tull of Alhambra, Ronald Lema of Los Angeles, Max Augustus of Glendale, Donald W. Lubach of Rossmore, Harold F. Spencer of Chatsworth, Robert J. Purdy and Raymond Prochnow of Sherman Oaks, and F. Edward Chappellear of Rolling Hills Estates.

South Bay Alpha Chi alumnae who are assisting with local arrangements are Mrs. Robert K. Stanford, invitations; Mrs. Frederick C. Spurgeon, patrons; Mrs. Arthur Diott, door prizes; and Mrs. Ralph H. Brubaker, publicity.

Among the patrons from the South Bay area are Dr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Spurgeon, Palos Verdes Estates; Mmes. Auten F. Bush, Manhattan Beach; and Lester G. Heilman, Hermosa Beach.

Others planning to attend the benefits with their guests will be Mrs. John E. Thayer of Torrance, president of the South Bay Alumnae Club; Mmes. Barry N. Smith and William A. Gaubatz of Palos Verdes Estates; Dale VandenBrink of Rolling Hills Estates; Mmes. Daryl Creighton and James H. Gamble of Palos Verdes Peninsula.

South Bay members aid the Crippled Children's Society during the year by working at the Long Beach Center of CCS. Alpha Chis do all kinds of office work, conduct summer camp interviews and help with the annual Easter Seal Drive beside contributing various items needed at the Center.

Fiesta of Fashion

Theme for their 12th annual fashion benefit "Magic in Motion" is "Fiesta of Fashions" and Alpha Chi Omega alumnae in the South Bay are giving decorations and press releases their full attention. From the left, Mrs. Dale VandenBrink and Barry Smith admire some Spanish novelties as Mrs. Ralph Brubaker arranges paper flowers. Involved in publicizing the event, Mrs. John Thayer reads a press release held by Mrs. F. Edward Chappellear. Proceeds from the gala affair go to Crippled Children's Society for scholarships providing graduate work in occupational, physical and speech therapy. (Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. THOMAS R. HOAG

Butterfield-Hoag Vows Solemnized

Relatives and friends from California, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona attended the wedding of Miss Susanne Butterfield and Thomas R. Hoag, which took place Aug. 31 in Tempe, Arizona.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Butterfield, 419 Camino Del Campo, Hollywood Riviera. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hoag of Denver, Colo.

For the 11 o'clock nuptial mass and ceremony, which was solemnized at the Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, the bride wore a gown of white lace over peau de sole. Her shoulder length veil fell from a peau de sole bow and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Mr. Butterfield escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Lori Burd, who wore pale yellow chiffon and carried yellow roses and white carnations.

Rick Hoag stood as best man and ushers were John Butterfield and Charles Hunt.

Officiating was the Rev. T. R. Kharris. The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. D. Richardson.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at Monti's restaurant in Tempe and the newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Carmel.

The bride was graduated from South High in Torrance. She attended Arizona State College, where she pledged Pi Beta Phi sorority. She is now employed in Tempe.

Her husband was graduated from a Denver High School and is a student at Arizona State College. He is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Kappa Delta Alums to Observe Anniversary

South Bay Alumnae of Kappa Delta will celebrate the sorority's 71st anniversary on Wednesday Oct. 9, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Sid Semon, 2734 W. 230th St. Torrance.

Kappa Delta was the first national Panhellenic Conference member to select the care of crippled children as its national philanthropy. Each year the sorority presents three awards of $1,000 each in the field of orthopedics. The awards are administered by the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons. The Oct. 9 meeting will also include a report given by Mrs. William Kramer on rush activities by the active members of the UCLA chapter.

All Kappa Delta alumnae living in the area are invited to attend this Founders Day celebration.

Future Bride

PATRICIA LEINWEBER

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Leinweber of Torrance announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Steven Haberfield, son of Mrs. Frances McKinzie and Mr. Ted Haberfield of Hawthorne.

No date has been set for the wedding. The future bride, a 1966 graduate of Torrance High School, attended El Camino College. She is now a junior at California State College at Long Beach and is employed as a secretary at the Evelyn Woods Reading Institute.

Her fiance was graduated from Morning-side High School in 1963 and received his AA degree at El Camino. Mr. Haberfield is an officer with the Los Angeles Police Department.

Dr. Marsee to Speak At Las Vecinas Meet

"What's Right About America's Youth" will be the topic discussed by Dr. Stuart E. Marsee at the meeting of the Las Vecinas Woman's Club on Oct. 3 at the Indian Village Restaurant.

Dr. Marsee has been the president of El Camino College and superintendent of the El Camino Junior College District since 1958. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Oregon and his doctorate from the University of Southern California.

Dr. Marsee taught business and social science courses in secondary schools in Oregon and at Pasadena City College, the University of Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles. Also he has lectured at Teachers College, Columbia University. Dr. Marsee was assistant superintendent and acting superintendent of the Pasadena City Schools prior to coming to El Camino College.

A prolific writer, the speaker is a recipient of the Distinguished Service Award of the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors; has served on numerous boards and committees, both local and national; and is active in community affairs. He recently was elected to the position of president of the American Association of Junior Colleges, an organization composed of approximately 800 junior colleges.

A social hour will begin at 11 a.m. and the luncheon at 12 noon will be followed by the program.

'Discover the Riviera'

Riviera Homeowners Association chose Oct. 12, Columbus Day, for its annual dinner-dance to be held at the Los Verdes Country Club.

All residents of the area are invited to "Discover the Riviera" and become acquainted with the neighbors by the dinner-dance co-chairmen, Mmes. Joseph Jay, Lawrence Abramson and Louis Kaplan. The social hour begins at 7:30 p.m. with dinner at 8:30 p.m. Les Tronziers and his combo will furnish dance music, according to Mrs. John Schoenberg, publicity chairman.

Ready for "popping of the cork" are Richard Hall, holding the champagne bottle, surrounded by Mmes. Louis Kaplan, Joseph Clukey and Joseph Jay, covering their ears, awaiting the blast.

Mrs. J. V. Clukey may be called for reservations.
